

ELLISVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT KID'S SAFETY DAY

Ellisville is once again joining forces with other emergency responders, safety organizations and businesses to provide a fun and informative safety event for kids and parents. The event will be held on the parking lot of St. John Church located at 15800 Manchester Road on Saturday, September 30 from 10 am to 2 pm. The event will feature child car seat inspections and free bicycle helmets. Trained certified car seat technicians will be available to check car seats for safety and proper installation. Children can also bring in their safety helmets for inspection and fitting by certified technicians. A very limited number of free helmets will be available to residents who cannot afford them.

Parents will be able to pick up information on a number of safety issues such as bicycle safety, child ID/fingerprinting, Internet safety, eating healthy, how to be safe around animals, first aid, and much more.

Ellisville Police along with other neighboring police and fire departments will display emergency equipment. Police officers and fire fighters will be on hand to answer any questions. Demonstrations will be conducted including Ellisville's K 9 "Dark".

Free refreshments of hotdogs, soda, water, pizza, popcorn, and more will be available along with free carnival games and prizes for the kids. Free raffles will be drawn for gift certificates donated by area businesses and the police department.
